

I wish to maintain the current WI no-call policy. Prior to this ruling, I was frequently bombarded with unsolicited telephone calls. I currently receive daily mailing from financial institutions wanting to sell me their products. Neither my family or I desire or need these products. Please honor the request of 80% of our state's residents who do not want telemarketers to invade their privacy and oppose changes in the WI no-call policy.